Cupping therapy is an ancient healing practice that boasts the following benefits:

- Improve blood circulation
- Release toxins
- Activate the lymphatic system
- Flush out fluids
- Remove stagnation
- Relieve pains
- Relax muscle tension
- Stimulate skin rejuvenation
- Bring ultimate relaxation to your body

Bellabaci is the creator of hand-squeezable cupping massage system. The Bellabaci Cupping System combines (1) superior, medical-grade, hand-squeezed silicon cups; (2) all natural, homeopathic, fast-acting Genie massage lotions; and (3) the Bellabaci ways of massage. Suitable for use on body and face. Use the Bellabaci Cups in a movement to massage or as stationary cupping for localized treatment.

Not only do Bellabaci's superior quality products meet the stringent demands of professional therapists, its easy and safe application makes it suitable for use in the comfort of your own home.
